Survey of Borough Banquet To Players Forecasts Higher On Narberth Team Insurance Rates Monday Night

Insufficient Water Supply Is Greatest Factor In Penalties For Deficiencies

Narberth is faced with the problem of giving immediate attention to the matter of its future fire protection. The Philadelphia Suburban Underwriters' Association has made a report on the condition of Narberth Borough, which will, if action is not taken, cause a large increase in our fire insurance rates. We have been demoted from Class "B," our present rating, to "D."

Burgess Carl B. Metzger sent to Council in its September meeting, a long and very carefully worked out message, covering the entire subject in a most thorough manner. Mr. Metzger and Mr. A. P. Redifer called upon Mr. Thomas F. Dwyer, Engineer for the Association, and went over their report, together with a map of the Borough, on which the suggestions and criticisms had been worked out. Mr. Metzger's message deals with a number of the matters which have penalized Narberth. First, and most stringent have been points taken off in the Water Department.

Water Department

Under this department we have been penalized 697 points—more than the number of points representing the difference between Classes "A" and "D." Part of these penalties are beyond our control, but part may be reduced. The message states, "The quantities available for fire purposes according to their report are seriously deficient, and the supply for residential purposes, especially in the northern half of the Borough, which is supplied from the Devon Reservoir through a single 6 inch main is very poor."

There are large areas of pipe in the Borough which the engineers consider too small, and suggest that an ordinance be passed not to allow any pipe less than six inches to be installed.

OCTOBER 17 A BIG RALLY DAY WHY?

Tuesday, October 17, will be a big day for the 170 members of the Women's Community Club, for that is the date on which the opening luncheon will be held. Plans have been under way for some time and the usual good cuts, good fellowship and inspiring talks may be expected.

Keep the seventeenth free and you will hear more about it later.

But Before this Luncheon

The State Federation of Women's Clubs will meet at Reading (October 9-13) and as Mrs. Ross has reserved room for five members at the Berkshire Hotel, she must know before the end of September if the room is needed and if not, give up some of her reservation.

But you will want to go if you are interested in Club work—for what you learn from the meetings and your association with women who are doing things, will make it possible for you to accomplish more yourself.

The social end of the convention will open Monday evening with a reception. There will be a Tea given by Mrs. Heisler and one by the Y. W. C. A., and an auto-ride to the Wyomissing Club on Friday morning. A breakfast with a literary program on Wednesday morning, a Conference on Junior sections on Tuesday morning and other subjects such as "Education from a National Standpoint," "Women of the Orient," "Women Poets of America," "The New Race," "Public Welfare," "The Kindergarten," and "The Truth About Vivisection."

Mrs. Blankenburg and Mrs. Levis R. Dick are among the speakers, and you will enjoy all of the five days.

Think it over and phone Mrs. Ross.

Prominent Speakers To Address Gathering

Monday evening, September 25th, at seven o'clock at the General Wayne Hotel the Narberth Baseball Club will have a celebration properly befitting the close of a successful season's work. Today Narberth plays its last ball game of the season and the interest with which baseball is received in the community is indicated by the fact that the total attendance at the games has passed the 17,000 mark. A splendid chicken and waffle dinner will be served at seven o'clock and John O. Dell, himself an enthusiastic baseball fan, is devoting all his personal energies to making the dinner one of the kind never to be forgotten. During the dinner there will be music and singing. Another ardent baseball rooster, Professor Nice, of the Narberth Chorus, will have charge of the musical end, possibly a quartet from the Chorus.

Among the speakers will be our baseball idol of yesterday, "Flick" Stites, now the Honorable Fletcher W. Stites. "Flick" is all keyed up for the occasion, and although there will be other well-known speakers, we know our friends look forward with real interest to what he will have to say. Among the other guests who are invited are Colonel D'Olier, President of the Sesqui-Centennial Celebration, Benjamin Ludlow, Esq., of Ardmore, James C. Ismanger, Sporting Editor of the "Philadelphia North American," and Wilmer G. Crowell, Manager of the local team.

The officers of the Club are confidently counting on a good turnout by the men of the town. The boys have served the town faithfully and well and richly deserve this evidence of our appreciation. The officers have arranged to present to each member of the team a souvenir of a permanent character that will always pleasantly recall to the minds of the players this particular season's work. We are also anxious to have a good-sized attendance, so that we can present to the meeting some ideas that have been formulated by the officers, that would probably facilitate the handling of baseball in Narberth and we would like to secure expressions from those present as to their idea of whether or not Narberth should continue in the Main Line League or play independent baseball next season. In other words the officers of the Club consider that the Narberth baseball team represents the people of our town, and want to conduct the team in accordance with the wishes of the majority.

The tickets for the dinner are $3.50, and can be secured at Davis' or Howard's. As the Hotel must be notified in advance, tickets will be withdrawn from sale at noon on Monday the 25th. There is a limit to the maximum attendance of 150, so get YOUR ticket tonight!

MARRIED 25 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Haws celebrated the "silver" anniversary of their marriage on September 15th. Prior to this date the new home which Mr. Haws erected at 109 Dudley Ave., was completed, and here they received the friends who attended. A dinner was served at seven-thirty. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Byers, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Haws, of Philadelphia, Miss Ida Kain, and Mr. S. A. Sargent, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Haws, of Pottstown, Rev. and Mrs. John Van Ness, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Keim, Lucia and Randolph Keim, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Haws, and daughters, Ruth and Marion, of Narberth.

The reason some men can't see their jobs, is because they always have one eye on the clock and the other on the boss.

New School Building Plans Approved

Beauty and Economy Combined Skillfully To Meet Present Problems

If present plans to add to the school equipment of Narberth are carried out in accordance with drawings now completed by Ritter and Shay, architects, Narberth will soon have a school second to none along the Main Line.

The plans were on view in the architect's office a few days ago when Mr. Ritter personally explained the building program now in contemplation and went into the detail of plans for carrying it out in accordance with the specific needs of Narberth's school system.

Designing beautiful buildings is one thing—and relatively simple; but fitting those buildings to individual needs and in accordance with financial limitations is quite another. The combination seems to have been happily met in the finished plans for the new school.

In the interest of economy, the new addition will adjoin the present grade school and will harmonize with it architecturally. In fact the grade school will form one wing of the new unit, the central portion being given over to an auditorium and the opposite wing containing the much needed class rooms.

A new auditorium is imperative from two points of view. There is at present no room for the ever increasing number of children who attend our schools large enough to serve as a common meeting place. But aside from that important point, the old auditorium, being located on the second floor of the present building is in violation of the building laws which demand that school auditoriums be placed on the ground floor.

In the new auditorium there will be room for 800 children. It will be modern and architecturally complete in every detail. On either side will be a unit, one the present grade school and the other, on the opposite side, the new unit, both in harmony with each other. The basement of the new building will contain room for the coal supply, the mechanical equipment and will also have shower and locker rooms for the students. On the first floor will be six class rooms with six more on the floor above, all of which will combine the most approved features of school equipment such as maximum light, proper desk space, adequate light, heat and ventilation and correct desk arrangement in relation to light and other features. In fact nothing has been omitted that will serve to make this new building one of the most perfectly appointed along the Main Line.

Withall, however, the matter of economy has been kept in mind. Everything has been done to limit the entire plant within the financial limits of the Borough and at the same time to provide for present and all reasonable future school demands. In order to do this all nonessentials have been eliminated; nothing has been retained that would in any way add to the expense unnecessarily.

Everyone in Narberth who is at all familiar with our school problem, especially the hundreds of mothers to whom that problem has become acutely serious, realizes the imperative need for some immediate action to safeguard the educational welfare of our children. The School Board has accepted the present plans only after all other possibilities have been considered and found inadvisable for one reason or another. But the School Board cannot build the building; the people of Narberth must do that.

Upon them rests the question of whether Narberth will continue to have a school far too small for its needs or one adequate in size. It is one of the most important questions before the people today, and the decision must rest upon them.

On next election day the School Loan will come up for vote. Then the future of every child in Narberth will be at stake. The spirit of Narberth, however, is overwhelmingly in favor of the loan and there is little doubt but that our school problem will soon be solved.

INITIAL REHEARSAL OF CHORAL SOCIETY

The Narberth Choral Society will hold its first rehearsal for this season on Monday evening, September 25, in the Y. M. C. A. Building. Applicants for active membership (singers) should be at the Y. M. C. A. between 7.30 and 8 o'clock to see Prof. Nice.

The Choral is glad to welcome back its professional accompanist, Erl Beatty, who has just returned from a tour of Europe.

At last Monday's get-together and business meeting of the membership body, Prof. Nice outlined briefly some interesting features and intimated something unusual in store for the Choral and Narberth during the coming season.

Stress will be laid this year upon REGULARITY and PUNCTUALITY at rehearsals, which will start promptly at 8 o'clock. Everyone is supposed to be in his or her seat by that time, otherwise will not be admitted to rehearsal during the first number. In this way, rehearsals can be made more interesting and brief.

The outside engagements which the Board of Directors are considering will require the best efforts of each and every member of the organization, as the aim is to furnish only high class concerts, and in an artistic manner as possible.

All interested singers of Narberth who affiliate themselves with this organization will help to further the musical interests of our Community, which lead toward high ideals and cultivation.

DEATH OF JACK HAAS

Assistant Postmaster, Jack Massey Haas, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Haas, 303 Grayling Avenue, on Friday morning, September 15th. Death was due to rheumatism and heart trouble, with which he had been suffering for several months.

Mr. Haas was 23 years of age. He has been an employee of the local post office for over four years, holding the position of Assistant Postmaster at the time of his death. He had a genial disposition, cheerful and pleasing personality, and through his unfailing courtesy and strict attention to duty, won the highest esteem of all with whom he came in contact.

Mr. Haas was a member of Crescent Lodge, No. 493, F. and A. M., and Palestine Royal Arch Chapter, No. 240. Funeral services, which were largely attended, were held on Tuesday afternoon. Interment was at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

THE TOWER OF BABBLE

By Collum Righter

SONNY BOY

Dear little rose bud,
Sonny Boy mine,
With laughing blue eyes and smile divine
And pink downy cheeks inviting a kiss—
Was ever a baby boy sweeter than this?
Dear little chubby, round emblem of love,
Fat as a butter ball,
Soft as a dove,
Talk with me—
Tell me in your baby way
When angels speak to you, what do they say?
Will your voyage happy be, or fraught with sorrow
When you start travelling through Life's to-morrow?
I hope I can be with you most of the time,
Just to help out a bit
Sonny Boy mine,
Just to make handers light
In some way
And you through darkest night into bright day.
Yes! What a dear little comrade you'll be
When we start journeying, So on and on,
I hope I'll mean lots to you
To not be sad after my days are done
Sweet little lad,
I'll watch and guide you, Boy!
Yes, bye and bye
We'll walk together there, Son
You and I.

So much for the youngster. And a view of the fact that we are under demn oath not to break the peace of our native Borough with anything that you bears a semblance to the alleged rumor which ever and anon creeps past the famous Livingstonian blue pencil, like its owner is off on a tour after eggs and birds up Pocono way, we shall oblige you with another of hectic pen-cumeter in the shape of the following.

GRANDPA

Grandpa's legs were both shot off by the Civil War.
And the wooden ones he wears
Scratch our hard wood floor.
Mother often scolds him so
That he says, "Good Lands,
Guess I'll have to start and try
Walking on my hands."
What a very funny sight!
My! How we would stare
At poor Grandpa's wooden legs
Way up in the air.
We will take our pennies down
To the hardware store
And buy him some rubber legs—
They won't scratch our floor.

In view of the recent statement published by a prominent psycho-analytic guy to the effect that ninety per cent. of the American reading public possesses the brains of a child of twelve, we burble with glee when we think of the intensity of the enjoyment that our Grandfather verse will scatter throughout Main Line homes twist Merion and the next settlement of the wealthy just west of us.

And for the benefit of those who admire as well as those who clamor for our hide, make caustic remarks regarding our worthiness as a husband and father and generally vote for our being tarred and feathered, we will state that there are a good many other members of our family, immediate and otherwise, who stand an admirable chance of being similarly immortalized in verse.

A word of explanation will no doubt fit in right here with respect to our mention of "the hardware store." We have no intention whatever of allowing any of the many patrons of our brace of emporiums so classified to lambaste us behind the ear and accuse us of giving free advertising to the affable, rosy countenanced youngster who keep a pro-volstead sized latch key suspended from his sign, well above the reach of our over-ambitious citizens.

It is a matter of conjecture with us as to whether any hardware dispenser ever sold rubber legs anyway. If any he did, it is dollars to dough nuts that those kids would have accumulated several nail kegs full of pennies before they would have been tendered the merchandise, securely wrapped up and accompanied by the usual cash register receipt.

Then again, we doubt if our Borough numbers among its professional residents any Doctor who could fit a rubber leg and get away with it. Of course there are a couple who might say they could. To such we say, come ahead and try it—come ahead and try it.

One day last week while riding out to Overbrook on No. 41 bent on completing the trip to Narberth in one half of our incomparable Buss Line we were annoyed from Ninth to Twenty-third on Market by a noisy truck that seemed determined to keep up to our ear window throughout the journey. Every time we lost it and attempted to read our favorite evening paper, the bloody thing would come sputtering and exploding its way up to our ear again. We had firmly decided not to even favor it with a glance out of the window but the persistence of the thing beat down our defense. Sometimes a constantly recurring event like that contains a message of some sort which may be of timely use. So we decided to give it the once over, next time it hove in line with us. And we did so. And it bore a message. The whole side of the truck was emblazoned with bold letters, red upon a field, green which spelled the words, NUTS, DOMESTIC AND IMPORTED. This is offered freely to the entire community. They may go as far as they like with it.

Shortage of Building Sites in Narberth

Narberth's growth has been consistent. This may be why our folks do not realize there is little available land in Narberth for home building.

Some are planning new homes and we cannot too strongly urge the selection of the building site before it is too late.

Or, for investment, the purchase of land with constantly improving property values will yield good returns.

Accustomed as we are to the benefits of gas, it would be difficult for us to imagine what our lives would be if we were deprived of this means of saving labor and time, and equalizing temperatures so that cold, cheerless rooms are made cozy, and stifling kitchens become pleasant places in which to work. We are so used to dustless, odorless and safe kitchens and improved cookery, that many of us do not stop to consider that we owe these improved conditions to Gas.

Is this the Library?

Yes, is this your first visit here? Then you will want to know something about the Narberth Community Library.

It was started and is still managed by the Women's Community Club. The only money the library has for buying books is obtained by a charge of ten cents a week for the new books, that is, books published during the years 1921-1922. On the shelves to the right are the older books which go out free of charge. Books of travel, plays and autobiographies are kept separated from the fiction. If you cannot find what you want, the Librarian will gladly help you. Yes, you may keep a book out for two weeks, but if it has not been returned after three weeks, a postal is sent to remind you.

Have You Any New Books?

Come take a look. They are kept right here on the table that is they are kept there when they are new.

The newest fiction added to the Library include books by Kathleen Norris, James Oliver Curwood, Mary Roberts Reinhardt and Zane Grey, whose novels are always popular.

"Judith of the Godless Valley," by Honore Willis was put on the New Book Table last week, and this week Stewart Edward White's "On Tiptoe," will be ready for circulation.

Of course we have quite a demand for these new books, just as they have in the big libraries for some of our readers follow the book news as closely as the librarians. Often before a book has been published we receive a number of requests for it. These requests are listed and the new books are loaned to readers in the order in which they have made application. If the book you want isn't in we will be glad to put your name on the reserved list.

"Robin" for instance is still very popular and we have a number of reservations for it.

"This Freedom," the new novel by A. S. M. Hutchinson, the author of "If Winter Comes," had been reserved by four readers even before it had been put on sale at the stores. But we're getting a second volume of "This Freedom" as we do with all new books when the demand is great enough.

You'll really be surprised at the way the Library is able to meet the demand for the new books.

BASEBALL

Narberth played planets to the All Stars team Thursday evening, winning 4 to 1, with Townsend in the box.

The lusty pitcher played a good game in the field and scored two of Narberth's runs. Harvey Humphries made a double play unassisted in the second. McConigle's high jump robbed Mickey Burns of a nice hit.

Survey Increases Insurance Rates

in the future, except for special reasons." The report shows further that 19% of the pipe in the Borough is 4 inch, and on Iona Avenue, from Woodbine to Montgomery, the main is 2 1/2 inches.

There are a number of "dead ends" in the Borough, which greatly interfere with a good water pressure and supply, and the penalty for this, and the small pipe, amounts to 99 points. The gate valves, to shut off pressure in case of a break, are too far apart. They should be not over 500 feet apart in the commercial district, yet, under the present circumstances, a break in that section would mean the shutting off of 4,000 feet, a matter of great inconvenience and fire danger. The fire hydrants, also, declares the Underwriters' report, are too far apart.

The Burgess in his report recommends that these matters be taken up at once with the Springfield Water Company, calling attention to the recommendation of the Engineers, and requesting them to give it their immediate attention, "and if they refuse to act, the matter should be carried to the Public Service Commission, as the present water supply in the Borough is a menace to safety."

Fire Department

The Underwriters have penalized the Borough 178 points on account of our present fire methods. The Burgess recommends that an ordinance be introduced regulating the operation of our Fire Department. Despite the high degree of efficiency displayed by the company, the lack of printed rules, systematized fire drills, and detailed reports of each fire has impelled the Engineers to penalize Narberth. A suggested ordinance covering these details was furnished. It was recommended that the appointment of Fire Chief be for indefinite service. The appointment to be made by Council, and removal only to be effected for cause after proper trial.

The matter of needed equipment was also taken up. We should have 2000 feet of serviceable hose, of which 1000 feet should at all times be on the hose wagon, the other thousand feet to be kept as a reserve. The Underwriters recommended the purchase of a piece of apparatus to be used as a reserve hose wagon. It was suggested that this be kept at the School. The purchase of such a wagon would remove fifty points from the deficiency.

Narberth was penalized 300 points for not having a pump. On account of the availability of outside aid from Philadelphia, Ardmore and Cynwyd, the amount of this penalty was reduced one-third. The need of a pumping engine, however, has been apparent.

Building Laws

The report criticizes our building code, penalizing us 82 points for not covering completing thickness of walls, chimneys, flues and heating apparatus, and their principal point in the report seems to be shingle roofs which should not be allowed in the Borough. A revised ordinance was suggested in the report.

Another important point in the report is that Narberth should at once have an ordinance covering the storage and sale of gasoline, oils, etc., and explosives of all kinds. The Burgess believes that such an ordinance should cover the sale and storage of fireworks.

In concluding his message, Mr. Metzger says, "We only need 141 points to be placed in 'C' Class, 391 to be put in 'B' Class and 641 points to be put in 'A' Class, and it is suggested that Council immediately introduce the Ordinance requested by the Philadelphia-Suburban Underwriters' Association and purchase additional fire hose and extra truck for reserve hose wagon, so that we may at least retain our present 'B' classification."

The report of the Burgess is being carefully considered by Councils, and that body plans to take immediate steps to keep Narberth in her former high classification. It is quite possible that our entire building code will be revised and brought up to date.
